Rep. Ford To Attend State of the Union Address Tonight

CHICAGO – State Representative La Shawn K. Ford (D-Chicago) has been invited to Washington, D.C. to attend the State of the Union Address to be delivered by President Obama tonight.

“This country still has high hopes for President Obama to create opportunities to build up the lives of poor families and strengthen the middle class,” said Rep. Ford. “President Obama has stabilized the larger businesses, and now this country is looking for relief for the core business groups of our country, which are the small businesses. The U.S. still faces a high unemployment rate, a record number of foreclosures, and a steady rise in the number of failing small businesses in the hardest-hit communities of this country. Our country is going through a major metamorphosis, and I am excited that I have been invited to hear this pivotal speech and hear first-hand how the President plans to help our nation meet the challenge and make America stronger for every citizen of our country,” said Rep. Ford.

Rep. Ford continued, “I look forward to doing my part as state Representative to help Illinois do its part to help grow businesses and create jobs.”
